The Chairman noted that the meeting would consider an overview of the Consolidated Defense Intelligence Program (CDIP) including a detailed presentation of the General Defense Intelligence Program (GDIP) by the program manager.

Before [] presentation the Chairman observed that Congress expected the DCI to have knowledge of intelligence-related programs. The Chairman noted that Executive Order 11905 gave the CFI no responsibility for managing intelligence-related programs. He pointed out, however, that Congress would hold him responsible for understanding and commenting on these programs. Mr. Ellsworth stated that he would arrange for the DCI to be briefed on intelligence-related programs.

[] noted that the CFI is, under the Executive Order, responsible for providing guidance on the relationship between national and tactical intelligence. He said that the Committee would turn to this issue after the DCI had been briefed.

25X1

The Committee agreed that program managers would address all the issues cited in the 1 July 1976 letter to the members.

[] presented a comprehensive briefing on CDIP and GDIP, highlighting two issues in the GDIP for CFI decision []

The Chairman noted that the presentations by the program managers would be considered as background for an overall review of the National Foreign Intelligence Program (NFIP) to be presented by [] and the Intelligence Community Staff. CFI decisions on the NFIP would be issued after the overall review. He said that the CFI could, of course, give program managers policy guidance on specific issues if the implications were clear.
